FEATURED SPEAKER:

Randy Chadwick, MPH (Master of Public Health) has 30 years of involvement in behavioral health with several decades of experience working with persons diagnosed with mental illness and developmental disabilities. He has served in a variety of inpatient and community settings including residential services and community outreach. With a background in health education, Mr. Chadwick also has over a decade of experience training and consulting with mental health professionals in organizational change, community outreach, motivational strategies, case management, and violence prevention. Mr. Chadwick currently is the Program Manager for the Rutgers University Behavioral Health Center’s Technical Assistance Center, a statewide training and consultation program, where he has served for the last ten years.

Course Objectives

1. Identify five risk factors associated with potential violence.
2. Describe three ways in which culture may influence a person’s view on violence.
3. Discuss the primary findings of the MacArthur Violence Risk Assessment Study and its criticisms.
4. Examine the conclusions of three studies which evaluate the link between mental illness and violence.
5. Identify ten potential pre-attack cues and the evaluation for future violence.
Violence Prevention and Safety

Registration Guidelines:

1. Click the registration link which corresponds to the training date and location you wish to attend on page one of this flyer.

2. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click on the “Register/Sign In Now” button that brings you to the “Your Account” page.

3. If you already have an account with the Rutgers University’s Online Registration System, you can login by going to the “Already have an account?” section and type in your username and password. If you do not remember your username, click on “Forgot Username” and type in your email address to receive an email with the information. If you don’t remember your password, click on “Forgot Password” and type in your email address and user name to receive an email with a link you will need to click on to change your password.

4. If you do not have an account, please go to the “New Students” section and create one by clicking on the “Create Account” button. Once on the “Registrant Profile” page, fill in all items that have a red asterisk, as well as “Affiliated Company/Employer” information. TAC requests that the agency name, address, phone number and mobile phone number are provided so that you can be reached should the training need to be cancelled, rescheduled or relocated for any reason. Please make sure your email address is correct and do not remove the checkmark next to “Email” on this page, as this is how you will receive notification of confirmation or waitlist status once the registration is completed.

5. At the bottom of the “Registrant Profile” page, please create your username and password. Remember to write both down for safekeeping since the TAC will not be able to retrieve your password if forgotten. You will use this username and password for all future trainings. After your account is created, hit the “Submit” button and from there, you can continue the registration process.

6. Please print out the confirmation form, which will be emailed to you, and bring it with you to the class.

If you have difficulty registering, please use either Internet Explorer or Safari. The registration software occasionally has conflicts with Firefox and Chrome. If registering via mobile device, click on “Full Version” to access the registration page. It may help to print out or have available the name of the course that interests you so that you can easily use the web site’s search functions.
